

Biography – Chris Taylor

Chris Taylor worked for the Canadian Federal Government for over 36 years in user & server support, IT architecture and IT security. He has been active in community user groups for over 45 years and is President of the Ottawa PC Users Group (OPCUG) in Canada's capital. He co-hosts the very popular weekly Q&A sessions hosted by the OPCUG.

Chris has given over 540 presentations at the Ottawa Public Library on many computer- and photography-related topics. He has given 11 presentations to groups within the APCUG and is scheduled to give another 5 this spring. He has written articles for GlassWire's Cybersecurity News and was on the Community Review Board for the SANS OUCH! security newsletter.

Chris has been awarded 15 times as a Microsoft Most Valuable Professional. He received the Ottawa Mayor's City Builder Award and the Ontario Volunteer Service Award in recognition of his volunteer efforts.
